Adventure Scouts USA believe there should be absolute certainty regarding our membership policies and our policy of inclusion and nondiscrimination. Every Scout is educated about our position so that they may be comfortable, understanding and appreciative of the Scout Code of Adventure Scouts USA.

We are a nationwide American Scout Program. We charter local teams of the Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA to provide our Scout Programs to all who wish to participate on a fully nondiscriminatory basis. The Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA are not affiliated with any of the other American Scout Programs and, in fact, each team is independent from any of the others. That said, we are brothers and sisters to other Scout Programs or Scout Organizations and encourage greater participation in the Scout Movement.

The Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA believes a motivating force in one's life is a belief in something greater than oneself. Our Scout Programs make no attempt to interpret or define a spiritual approach to life. Rather, we ask our Scouts and Members to establish for themselves the nature of their own worldview. Specific religious or denominational affiliation is not a requirement of membership in the Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA.

Ours is an educational program designed to help our Scouts live their lives as Scouts, according to the principles of the Adventure Scouts USA and the global Scout Movement. Our modern programs have been designed to evolve. Our Scouts choose, organize, and lead their meetings, programs, and activities. Participation encourages the Scouts to develop their values and leadership skills and to develop personally. Our Scout Programs are co-ed, making it easy for parents; rather than running all over the town, the entire family can participate in our Scout Programs.

The Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA believe that opportunities should be equal and earned, and the measure of an individual ought to be their talent, ability and the content of their character.

The Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA respect the values and beliefs of each of its members and encourages all to be themselves, yet still maintains high standards with regard to the appropriate conduct of all its members. We do not permit the advocacy or promotion of any aspirations and principles other than those of the Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA.

Participation in the Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA is a privilege. We expect all participants, at all times, to conduct themselves in accordance with the principles of the Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA. Harassment, hazing or abuse of any kind is not tolerated under any circumstances.

For over 90 years, the global Scout Movement has contributed valuable ways of living ones' life and leading one's life. The Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA are proud to play our part in continuing the time-honored tradition of the Scout Movement.

A pillar of the Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA are our acceptance of differences. We believe the equal and ethical treatment of all people is a primary component of good character. We instill these values through the use of learning by doing experiential activities. We
