

Our Scouts choose, organize and lead all their meetings, programs, and activities, however, parents and family members can always participate. Our activities are so FUN and relevant to everyone, that multiple generations of families and extended family members choose to participate in the activities of the Scout Programs of Adventure Scouts USA.