

The Closing of a meeting is important. It is the beginning and end that people remember, so like the beginning, the team meeting should end on an up note.

Scouts can participate in games or projects. The Closing activity should be FUN and should give Scouts an opportunity to reflect on what they liked most about the meeting.