

Before created or uploading a Journalism video for Adventure TV, our Scouts and members need to be aware of our standards. All videos and all claims made in the video must be fact-checked by the Scout or member making the video. We do not fact-check videos after we have received them. All sources must be cited. Remember, a news story is not an opinion story. A new story should include only facts and not the opinion of the person making the video.