In this section are resources for educators including sample Curricula for a Learning by Doing Exhibition in which students get to learn by interacting with real professionals.