

We enable our Scouts to become truly proficient in outdoor skills and first aid. We go beyond other Scout Programs and Scout Organizations, instead of simply having activities which take place in the outdoors or involve first aid, we instill true proficiency.

After Scouts have demonstrated they are proficient in first aid, random checks will come up to make sure they still have the skills. First aid and outdoor skills are skills which will serve our Scouts life long on all their adventures.